MAINE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE

ANNUAL SESSION AT GARDINER.

SUNDAY—FIFTH DAY.

At five A. M. Prayer meeting. At nine A. M. Love Feast, conducted by Presiding Elder Martin. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Colby, after which followed a precious season of praise in testimonies and singing,—one hundred giving brief testimonies. When the Methodists gather at a Conference love feast, with salvation for a theme, little time is suffered to pass unimproved.

10-30 A. M.—SERMON BY BISHOP SCOTT.

Opening hymn, 190th. Prayer by Rev. Parker Jaques. Singing of the 195th hymn.

From Acts II, 1-4, the Bishop gave a sermon of great excellence. It produced a powerful effect, not soon to be forgotten. As we issued from the church with a throng that had filled floor, gallery and vestibule, and thought of the strength and power of the Bishop's words, which had held his hearers closest at attention, the brief notes we had made seemed tame and inadequate to convey any correct idea of the discourse.

"And when the day of Pentecost was fully come," &c. This is God's own record of the inauguration of the Christian economy. The Mosaic dispensation of symbols, of shadows, had passed away, and the dispensation of Christianity was opened, never to close till the consummation of all things. This, in some of its aspects, is the most important event in the history of redemption. God had no richer gift to bestow than that given to the church.

The Bishop considered the model for Christianity here presented, and dwelt upon the peculiar preparedness of the disciples for this. They were of one accord in the faith—Jesus was the Messiah. They arose on one occasion while the Lord was among them in human form, to a true conception of the character of Jesus when Peter, ever spokesman, had cried: "Thou art the Christ, the son of the living God;" but He was a mystery to them—in the form of a man, but often acting like God. Their faith was fitful. But now, after the occurrence of the past few weeks, every shred of doubt had passed. They were looking for the descent of the Holy Ghost, and not from the east, from the west, from the north, or from the south, but down from God out of Heaven came the sound of a mighty rushing wind. This was in fulfillment of the promise of the Father—in the words of Christ. "The promise of My Father." This reveals the Fatherhood of God, the sonship of Jesus. This was not the spirit of bondage, but the spirit of adoption, and they could now cry "Abba, Father," with a joy no prophet had ever realized. The Bishop then feelingly alluded to the time in 1822, when in a little town in Delaware, he felt he had received the spirit of adoption.

The effect was considered. Theirs was ecstatic speaking. They magnified God. When this was noised abroad, the people gathered to hear. And such is the effect to-day, when people magnify God. The Bishop said he was always careful to place churches where they would best serve, but if the Spirit is poured out upon people in a cedar swamp, the multitude will gather. Christianity, like its author, is the same yesterday, and to-day and forever. Then, looking over the congregation, the speaker asked, "Have you had your Pentecost?" He did not ask "Have you been baptised, are your sympathies with the church, but have you received the Holy Spirit? "If any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His." "If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask it."

The sermon was followed by ordination of deacons, Geo. E. Andrews, Alden F. Chase, C. Butterfield and John B. Fogg were ordained.

AFTERNOON.

A fine sermon by Rev. Dr. Lansing of the Ga. Conference, from Luke X-2, after which was the ordination of C. D. Bisbee, G. R. Wilkins and James Nixon as elders.

The evening was devoted to the Missionary Anniversary.

MONDAY—SIXTH DAY.

Met at 9 A. M., some important business was attended to, and then followed the distribution of money to Conference beneficiaries.

Dr. H. P. Torsey then addressed the Conference on educational matters.

Committees for next year were appointed.

Rev. I. Luce was appointed to preach the missionary sermon.

Bishop Scott then announced the appointments as follows:

NUMBER OF EGGS PER ANNUM.

After repeated experiments with the different varieties of chickens and comparisons with others who have experimented in the same direction, we conclude that the laying capacities for the principal varieties average about as follows:—

Light Brahmas and Partridge Cochins—Eggs, 7 to the pound, lay 130 per annum.

Dark Brahmas—Eggs, 8 to the pound, lay 120 per annum.

Black, White and Buff Cochins—Eggs, 8 to the pound, lay 115 per annum.

Plymouth Rocks—Eggs, 8 to the pound; lay 150 per annum.

Houdans—Eggs, 8 to the pound; lay 150 per annum.

La Fleche—Eggs, 7 to the pound, lay 130 per annum.

Creve Coeurs—Eggs, 8 to the pound; lay 140 per annum.

Black Spanish—Eggs, 7 to the pound, lay 140 per annum.

Leghorns—Eggs, 8 to the pound, lay 160 per annum.

Hamburgs—Eggs, 9 to the pound; lay 150 per annum.

Polish—Eggs, 9 to the pound, lay 125 per annum.

Dominiques—Eggs, 9 to the pound, lay 135 per annum.

Games—Eggs, 9 to the pound, lay 130 per annum.

Bantams—Eggs, 15 to the pound, lay 90 per annum.

The Wise Course in Rheumatism.

Rheumatic patients who have been induced to submit to depletion by blood letting, or to take colchicum and other drugs of an equally pernicious character, will consult their well being by abandoning such insane procedure, and using as a substitute Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will infallibly afford them the much desired relief, and is absolutely safe. This benign vegetable depurent cools the blood by expelling from it the inflammatory element which gives rise to maladies of a rheumatic and gouty type, and rectifies disordered conditions of the stomach, nervous system and bowels which usually accompany them. As rheumatism has a tendency to attack the heart, the desirability of an early resort to the Bitters is obvious, since the danger is increased by every moment of delay.

GOING THE WHOLE FIGURE.

The Boston Journal is progressing rapidly. It not only hastens to apologize for the recent outrages in the South, but it actually finds fault with those newspapers which have reported the facts. The Journal's editorial excuse for the latest examples of lawless violence in the South reads like a fac-simile of articles that have appeared regularly in such papers as the N. Y. World and Boston Post for years past. The Journal even furbishes up for use that stale and thin Democratic plea which they have used in commenting upon every massacre from Coushatta to Hamburg, and which will be recognized in this: It would therefore be as unjust to hold the people of the South responsible for these occasional scenes of violence as it would to hold the people of Pennsylvania responsible for the murders committed by the Molly Maguires, or the people of several of the most intelligent of the Western States accountable for the acts of the bands of masked men who broke open jails a few years since, took prisoners therefrom and hanged them.

It is lamentable that a Boston newspaper which has so often exposed and arraigned in its own columns the dishonesty and absurdity of the above comparison, should be found ready to employ such flimsy excuses of Southern lawlessness and to cast such unwarranted reflection upon Northern States, where lawlessness is condemned by the people and punished in the courts. The people of Pennsylvania vindicated themselves from such an aspersion as is intimated above, by putting the law into active operation against the murderous Molly Maguires and bringing them to prompt and condign punishment. The people of the Western States have been no less prompt and earnest in hunting down the ruffians who have disturbed the peace and committed violence. The comparison is an affront to law-abiding and law-respecting communities, and the Journal ought to be ashamed of using it.

That paper knows perfectly well that the crimes committed in Pennsylvania and the Western States have been of an exceptional character, have had no connection with politics and have been universally denounced by the press and the public. The outrages in the South on which its comparison is based, have been perpetrated solely on account of the political opinions of their victims, they have been systematically continued ever since the war, and their perpetrators have been shielded, defended and in many cases rewarded by the class denominated by the Journal as the "people" of that section. Pennsylvania has never attempted to reward a Molly Maguire assassin by sending him to Congress, nor has Minnesota indorsed any highway outlaw by public honors. It is the so-called "people" of Mississippi who offer a Senatorial wreath to deck the brow of the organizer of the shot-gun campaign, and it is the Hampton class of "people" of South Carolina who similarly reward the bloody butcher of Hamburg by choosing him for a seat in the United States Senate.

We feel ashamed that any New England journal that has ever sustained the principles of liberty and law, should be led by entangling alliances into apology for organized murder and proscription. The Journal is going the whole figure, and the old Post may well stand aghast at the zeal of its former antagonist in its new role as champion of the Southern Ku-Klux.

The anomalous attitude of the Journal as the apologist of the bloodthirsty intolerance at the South is also rendered more conspicuous by the Herald's publication of the following special despatch:

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Judge W. W. Chisolm and J. P. Gilmer, two of the victims of the Mississippi tragedy, were here a month or two since and expressed their conviction that Hayes' policy would result disastrously to persons of Republican proclivities in the South. They spoke of being constantly menaced while at home, owing, as they said, to the outspoken and independent course they pursued in politics, and seemed much apprehensive of danger while here. Gilmer never went without his revolver. On one occasion, while going from his apartments to the dining-room at the house where he was stopping, he suddenly stopped and finding that he did not have his pistol with him, hastily returned to his room, took from the mantel a Colt's revolver, which he placed in his side pocket and proceeded to his meal. "I cannot," he remarked to a friend who was with him, "feel safe without my revolver. I am not sure that I am not followed even to Washington and to this very house by my enemies who seek my life." At another time he and Judge Chisolm met at the Ebbitt House with some other friends. They were both about starting on their return trip to Mississippi. Mr. Gilmer remarked, "I feel that I am going back to be murdered." "And," replied Judge Chisolm, "I expect to be buried with you." This incident was commented on at the time, and the recent massacre has proved that their apprehensions were correct.

A HINT TO THE OVER-ZEALOUS

[From the Providence Journal.]

That there are a large number in the Republican party who have grave doubts as to the wisdom of the President's Southern policy needs no proof. True, the Republican press is almost unanimous in its support, but the manner in which the support is given proves the doubtfulness of a large minority, if not a majority, of the party. Nearly all the leading papers take special pains to say that President Hayes's policy is an experiment. Multitudes of Republicans are willing to have the experiment tried fairly and fully, yet withal have no little inward trembling for the result. Many believe in Hayes's policy, but fear to have it carried out, fear for the liberty and safety of the negro.

It will not do to attempt to read out of the Republican party this large class of respectful doubters. Even if the Hampton and Nicholls men of the South could be obtained in exchange, it would be a losing bargain. But to suppose that any considerable portion of the Southern white Democracy will join the Administration party indicates a simplicity of faith which is extremely rare, and is worthy of a better cause. Indeed, why should they, when they can better control the policy of the Administration outside the party.

Unfortunately, the Administration papers, reporters, and writers, are furnishing too much reason for the doubts in honest minds. The sneering, supercilious tone in which the Republican opposition is spoken of by Washington correspondents, and the assumption of bad motives in all cases, is not calculated to produce harmony.

The willingness to subordinate right to expediency and majorities to might, has not a reassuring effect.

The Newburyport, Mass., Herald reports the death of a woman from eating apple sauce cooked in a vessel made of the so-called marbleized iron. It is stated that the manufacturers have called in this ware and will return the money paid for it.

A CASE FOR PLAIN SPEAKING.

We clip the following editorial paragraph from the Boston Traveller, of Wednesday:

The Washington correspondent of the Traveller yesterday announced that several Southern Democrats count upon the support of President Hayes for the Southern Pacific Railroad scheme. Now, the long and short of this is that these Southern men are mistaken. Whether or not they have been deceived by the wily Matthews is a matter between them and him, and does not concern the country at large. That Matthews thought it necessary to pledge the President to this huge job, in order to secure acquiescence in his election may be true, but that the President did so unpatriotic or so foolish a thing as to sanction any such trade cannot be true. There is pretty good reason to believe that the President is opposed to that job, as the tax-payers certainly are.

The Traveller is commendably desirous of crediting the President with views on the railroad subsidy scheme in harmony with the overwhelming preponderance of public sentiment at the North. We would gladly learn that its impressions are correct, but the indications have been so strongly the other way that we could not fail to note them. This matter of subsidizing the South is a very important one and it seems hardly possible that the President would permit such positive statements of his support of these projects as have been repeatedly published, to pass uncontradicted if erroneous. It would seem to be clearly a case for plain speaking, especially as two members of his Cabinet have declared themselves in favor of the $150,000,000 Texas-Pacific subsidy. But notwithstanding the general comment on the subject and the positive assertions of Southern advocates of the scheme, we have nothing more definite as to the President's attitude than the expressed confidence of the Traveller and such vague despatches as this to the Boston Journal of Thursday:

Notwithstanding the remarkable confidence of Southern Democrats, that the President will recommend the passage of the Texas-Pacific bill, there is reason to believe that they will be mistaken.

This is entirely inadequate as a contradiction of positive statements widely published, and the following special to the Boston Advertiser of same date as the above, fails to aid in the removal of doubts:

A member of the Cabinet, in response to a question whether the President would favor the passage of the Texas Pacific Railroad bill, said to-day that he was not authorized to speak in behalf of the President. The subject had not been discussed in the Cabinet, although it is quite possible the President, in private conversations, has indicated his position in regard to this measure. The friends of the road assert positively that the President has given assurances that he will favor the passage of the bill, as a simple act of justice to the Southern States.

With these constant assertions that the support of Southern subsidy projects is a recognized feature of the "conciliation programme," the President can hardly preserve reticence as to the truth of these statements without seeming to give them a tacit endorsement. The tax-payers are directly interested in the subject and will be sensitive as to propositions for shoveling money out of the Treasury into the South to "pacify" that section. As a matter of principle it would be infinitely more defensible and creditable for the Northern people to purchase the "conciliation" of the white-liners of the South with Northern money, than to barter away the rights of the whole loyal people of that section to "pacify" revolutionists. But we do not believe that the hearts of the people approve of any surrender of principle at the dictation of a disturbing element, and any attempt to supplement the surrender of political rights with millions of subsidy for the South, will certainly awaken a loud popular protest.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

The Chicago Tribune is indignant at Wade Hampton and refers to his insignificance generally, and his littleness in particular cases. The Tribune always makes a discovery when it can do no one under the sun any good. It ought to have been indignant months ago.—Inter-Ocean.

The Boston Advertiser's special says —A number of Southern members have pledged themselves not to vote for any person for Speaker who does not favor the passage of the Texas Pacific Railroad bill.

If General Garfield, as our Washington special intimates, is counting upon the votes of Southern Democrats to elect him Speaker of the next House, he is likely to come to grief. We should like to see the Southern Democrat base enough to betray not only his constituents, but manhood and common decency, by voting for that red-mouthed, false-hearted, narrow-minded, unprincipled jobber, hypocrite and persecutor of the South.—N. O. Times, Democrat.

No wonder the Ohio politicians are in favor of civil service reform. It seems to mean an office, and a fat one, for all of 'em.—Springfield Union.

President Hayes is credited with the remark that United States officers should not take part in primary elections. We don't believe he said so. If he did, we don't believe in the doctrine. It is the duty of every good citizen to attend the primary meetings, and every Federal office-holder ought to be a good citizen.—Lowell Courier.

Mr. Blaine is the representative of a feeling. He is the type, the exponent of a very large portion of the Republican party and as such is entitled to a respectful hearing. No one recognizes this better than the President. It is only the President's indiscreet friends, hereabouts, and in the city of Boston, who are blind to this fact, and who incline to the declaration of war on this portion of the Republican party. Such a policy we hold to be but a step from lunacy.—Cincinnati Times.

As we supposed, The South Carolina Senate, under the inspiration of the new forces in that State, protests against the arrest or trial of the Ellenton and Hamburg murderers. "Political persecution" is what such a trial would be called. It is astonishing how easily those mild mannered heroes are persecuted. After riding down and murdering scores of defenceless negroes, it is persecution to try and punish them. We do not for a moment suspect that Hampton will punish his friends. The trouble is, they are disposed to make a fight on the President about it. Having discovered his weak spot, it will be their fault if they do not make the most of it. We hope the President enjoys his high-toned friends.—Pittsburg Commercial.

But yesterday the blue blood of Boston was churning itself into a spume over the appointment of Mr. Simmons to the Collectorship of that port. And now Mr. Simmons is developing strength for a translation into a more roomy sphere of usefulness, and Boston turns complacently away from Mr. Emerson's lecture and indorses Mr. Simmons' application.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Providence Journal has endeavored to take the most favorable view of the Southern policy of the Administration and has sought to sustain it so far as possible on the ground that the intentions of the President are good and that the policy may turn out well. The Journal, however, has refrained from the intolerant championship assumed by many of the policy supporters, and in an editorial that we copy elsewhere, it very candidly informs them that they are undertaking a large contract when they propose to read all the opponents of the surrender policy out of the Republican party.

The Boston Journal has not yet got all its force fully trained in the new White League harness. While its editorial smooths over the Mississippi butchery, its telegraphic reports are candidly headed "The Mississippi Assassinations—A Preconcerted attempt to get rid of prominent Republicans."

RECONCILING THE SOUTH:
EXTERMINATING REPUBLICANS.

TRUE CHARACTER OF THE MASSACRE OF PRISONERS IN MISSISSIPPI BECOMING APPARENT—MOST OF THE VICTIMS "PROMINENT REPUBLICANS"—AND THEIR ASSAILANTS DEMOCRATS—HEROIC CONDUCT OF JUDGE CHISOLM'S WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

Special Despatch to the New York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Mississippi Republicans are considerably excited over the reported assassination of Judge Chisolm, John P. Gilmer, and A. McClelland, on Sunday last, at DeKalb, Kemper County, Miss. These men are leading Republicans, are among the largest property owners in their section, natives of the South, and served in the Confederate Army. Chisolm and Gilmer have held responsible positions in Mississippi. After the war Chisolm advocated the acceptance of reconstruction, and early became an active Republican. He was Probate Judge of his county before the rebellion, and was elected Sheriff of Kemper after reconstruction, which office he held continuously up to last Fall, when he was the Republican candidate for Congress in the Third District. Gilmer was a State Senator for three or four years. It is believed that the assassination of those two men was the result of a prearranged plan, and that the assassination of Gully, a short time previous, was seized upon as the pretext for arresting Chisolm and Gilmer, in order that they might be disarmed and killed. Chisolm leaves a wife and several children. Both these men testified before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections in February last, and previous to leaving this city stated to friends that they believed they would be murdered upon returning to Mississippi, because of the testimony they gave before the Senate Committee.

MORE DETAILS—A HORRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

[Dispatch to the Associated Press.]

JACKSON, May 1.—The following additional account has been received of the bloody affair in Kemper county:

On Thursday evening last John W. Gully, a prominent citizen of Kemper county, was assassinated by an unknown party. The murder created intense excitement, and every endeavor was resorted to to discover the perpetrator. On Saturday two colored men made affidavit that Benjamin Rush, a white man, was the guilty party, and that Judge Chisolm, who ran for Congress on the Republican ticket in the Third District at the last election, his son, and Gilmer, Rosenbaum, and a man named Hopper, all white Republicans, knew of and instigated the crime. Judge Chisolm and his son were arrested and imprisoned at De Kalb, and Mrs. Chisolm and daughter insisted on sharing their confinement. On Sunday Judge Chisolm sent to Scooba for Gilmer, for whom a warrant had been issued. Gilmer came, and on arrival was arrested, but just as he arrived at the jail he was set upon by a mob and killed. The jailer was then overpowered by the mob, who immediately attacked Judge Chisolm, mortally wounding him, and killing his son. Miss Chisolm, in defending her father, shot and killed Dr. Rosser, and Mrs. Chisolm severely wounded young Gully, a son of Mr. Gully who was assassinated. Miss Chisolm was also seriously wounded. Rosenbaum and Hopper were carried to the woods by the mob for the purpose of extorting from them the whereabouts of Rush, the alleged assassin of Mr. Gully. When last heard from, some weeks ago, Rush was in Arkansas. It is supposed Rosenbaum and Hopper were hanged. A horrible state of affairs is reported as existing throughout that section. The people are wild with excitement, and other hangings will probably follow.

A LETTER FROM ONE WHO KNEW THEM.

To the Editor of the New York Times:

Mr. Gilmer and Judge Chisolm, who were killed yesterday in Mississippi, I met in Washington this winter, while they were witnesses before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections. Their testimony will be found in the printed report of the investigation of Mississippi. They were not carpet-baggers in any sense, but reputable gentlemen, the latter a man of means, owning some 10,000 acres of land there, and the former, I believe, a lawyer. Both were natives of the South and in the Southern army, but were Republicans from principle, and the latter in sympathy with the Hayes Administration. They were incapable of waylaying anybody, and this massacre I am sure is a cowardly assassination of true men who were peculiarly obnoxious on account of being Southern-born men, sympathizing with the Republican party in the State. Judge Chisolm was a candidate for Congress in the last campaign, and stumped his Congressional district. He was not allowed to speak but in a few places without interruption and at the peril of his life. On the day of the election he was not allowed to vote in his own town, the bull-dozers visiting his house and shooting into it the day previous. He was counted out by the Democrats. He dreaded going back to Mississippi on account of the state of feeling there, and hoped for a better state of feeling from the Hayes' course, which would enable him and his family to live in more peace. He has had to change his clothes to visit his office in the evening, to avoid the assassination which has at last come.

T. J. H.

Referring to the appointment of Judge King as Collector, in order to break up the Supreme Court of Louisiana, the Lowell Courier says:

This leaves the court too small to do business, and so Nicholls' court steps into undisputed power. We must say that this sort of a disposition of a troublesome question shows more of shrewdness than of straightforward, square honesty. In Gen. Grant's day it would have been considered a rather questionable barter trade.

HOBART PASHA AN OLD BLOCKADE-RUNNER.—Admiral Hobart Pasha, of the Turkish navy, whose exploit in running by the Russian batteries at Galatz was told in Wednesday's despatches, is said to be well known in Washington. He was one of the most successful and most annoying of the blockade runners of our civil war, in which service he was employed by the formerly wealthy but recently bankrupt London firm of Alexander Collie & Co. He was a captain in the British navy, but took advantage of a leave of absence granted him by the English Government, to go into the blockade running business. When this came to the knowledge of the Lords of the Admiralty, he was suspended from his rank in the British Navy. Thereupon he entered the Turkish service, and, besides being invested with the rank of Admiral, he was made a pasha by an Imperial firman. He next became conspicuous in checking the rebellion in Crete, where his knowledge of the blockade running business was of great service to him in preventing the Greeks from furnishing supplies of arms and ammunition to the insurgents. By a subsequent decree in council of the Lords of the Admiralty, he has been restored to his rank and number in the British navy.

PINCHING THE WRONG "FELLOW."—The present Archbishop of Dublin, the gifted author of the work so widely known on the "Study of Words," is not in very robust health, and has been for many years apprehensive of paralysis. At a recent dinner at Dublin, given by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, his grace sat on the right of his hostess, the Duchess of Abercorn. In the midst of the dinner, the company was startled by seeing the Archbishop rise from his seat, and still more startled to hear him exclaim in a dismal and sepulchral tone,

"It has come! It has come!"

"What has come, your grace?" eagerly cried half a dozen voices from different parts of the table.

"What I have been expecting for twenty years," solemnly answered the Archbishop, "a stroke of paralysis. I have been pinching myself for the last twenty minutes, and find myself entirely without sensation."

"Pardon me, my dear Archbishop," said the Duchess, looking up to him with a somewhat quizzical smile, "pardon me for contradicting you, but it is I that you have been pinching."—Harper's Magazine.

DRY GOODS
AT One Price!

J. T. RINES & CO.,

have for a long time believed the ONE PRICE SYSTEM of selling goods the only fair and honorable way of doing business, and have adhered quite closely to it, but now they have decided to do a STRICTLY ONE PRICE BUSINESS. While they expect to lose some trade, who always like to drive a bargain, they fully believe there is a large proportion of the community who approve of one price, who will sustain them in their efforts. They have just opened a large stock of Spring and Summer Goods—the choicest styles from New York and Boston—which will be sold at as low prices as can be found in Boston or elsewhere. They most respectfully invite their friends and the public to examine these goods and note their prices.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Movements of the Forces

ROUMANIA'S DOUBLE DEALING.

Russia's Hurried Declaration of War.

Germany, Austria and Russia in Alliance.

The Precipitate Declaration of War

LONDON, May 3. A Vienna correspondent of the Times shows how the Russians precipitated the declaration of war. He says they had agreed with Roumania to give the Chambers time to pass a convention before the entry into Roumania commenced. The precipitation was not due to military reasons, as the Russian movements in Roumania have since shown that delay would have been advantageous, enabling Russia to more thoroughly complete her preparations, but the Turks at the last moment showed some hesitation and seemed prepared to appeal to the eighth article of the treaty of Paris before it was actually decided. Had this been before the declaration of war Russia could not have refused to listen [illegible] would have [illegible]—Russia seems to have declared war to prevent this

Contradiction

ST PETERSBURG, May 3. The Journal de St Petersburg contradicts the Turkish reports of Russian losses in the engagement near Batoum

Various Reports

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 3. It is stated that the Russians occupied and [illegible] the D[illegible] near Ibrail and the left bank of the river as far as the mouth of the [illegible]. It is expected the Turkish squadron shortly [illegible] to Crete. The Turkish authorities have received orders to evacuate [illegible] and the neighboring district. In consequence of the representations of Layard, the British Minister, it is expected Chefket Pasha, one of the Turks responsible for the Bulgarian massacres, will be removed from important military command and sent to Bagdad.

The Turkish official Journal states that no important battle has been fought in Armenia. The Russian vanguard only [illegible] its appearance at Batoum

LONDON, May 3. Reports are current of a Turkish defeat at Kars and the capture of the Turkish corps, but the Turkish Minister of War is understood to have contradicted the rumors

ODESSA, May 3. The Czar, the Czarowitch and Grand Duke Vladimir arrived here this afternoon and inspected the troops. The Russian [illegible] has left for Kief

LONDON, May 3. The Lloyd's telegram from Constantinople has the following:

The British steamer Wallachia has arrived here having been ordered to leave Galatz.

The blockade of the Black Sea may be declared at any moment. Several British steamers therefore are staying here

A Russian prize has been brought here with a cargo of salt

A despatch from Bucharest dated April 30 says fire was opened this morning between the Russian batteries near Ibrail and the Turkish monitors. The latter began to bombard Ibrail but were compelled before noon to withdraw before the Russian fire. Loss of life and damage in Ibrail unknown

The Situation in Roumania

LONDON, May 4. The Times Bucharest correspondent dated April 29 gives the following as a summary of the situation in regard to Roumania. When the Russians crossed the Pruth the Roumanians were nearly frightened [illegible] of their senses for fear the Turks might execute their oft repeated threat of crossing the Danube. The government of Bucharest was loud in protestations of neutrality [illegible] declaring their intention of remaining perfectly neutral and the resolution of withdrawing all its forces into the interior of the country. Despite this [illegible] by some mysterious fatality the Roumanian troops and artillery [illegible] to gravitate towards the Danube instead of the interior. As each day lessened the danger of the Turks crossing the Danube and the Russians continued to cross the frontier the courage of the Roumanians [illegible] and within the last 48 hours we have heard much less Roumanian neutrality

A later despatch says seven Bulgarians were arrested [illegible] for signing an address to their fellow countrymen.

The Times Paris correspondent writes that Safvet Pasha's note to the Powers [illegible] the eighth article of the Treaty of Paris is supposed to be due to the suggestion of Mr Layard. It is stated that the Council of Ministers disapproved the note by a large majority, but the Palace [illegible] full approbation

The Circassians

A despatch dated Erzeroum May 2 says a son of Schamyl, the famous Circassian chief, is expected to take command of the Circassians who have ever refused to submit to military organization

Mukhtar Pasha's army is at Zewin, 10 miles west of Kars. A Russian division is also operating there

An Alliance

BUCHAREST, May 3. At a secret session of the Chambers to-day despatches from the Roumanian representatives abroad were read alleging that an agreement certainly exists between Germany, Austria and Russia relative to the Eastern question. The information given by the representatives must be taken for what it is worth, but these despatches have materially affected the opinion in the Chambers.

An Active Alliance Sought

Prince Charles is working hard to effect an active alliance with Russia. This idea is opposed at the Russian headquarters.—The Generals are unwilling to allow the Roumanian forces to be made a separate corps under command of the Prince or any other General who is not a Russian.—It is said there is some disagreement between Prince Charles and the Grand Duke Nicholas on this account

If this difficulty can be overcome the Roumanians will make common cause with Russia, but not otherwise. The Bucharest official journals have seized this occasion to suggest the bombardment of Ibrail as the casus belli. The Roumanians are making extraordinary preparations.

Rumors

Thirty radical deputies desire to introduce a motion for the independence of Roumania. It is announced that the Turks have burned and abandoned Tult[illegible]. It has been raining the past 48 hours and the roads are becoming as bad as in the depth of winter

Kalafat Occupied

Thursday Eve—The Roumanians have taken military possession of Kalafat with 4000 men and 24 Krupp guns. They will fortify and hold the position against the Turks

THE PHILADELPHIA PERMANENT WORLD'S FAIR. The Main Centennial building has been opened to the public and there is considerable local enthusiasm over the excellence and extent of the show, which [illegible] will [illegible] formally opened until May 10th, the anniversary of the opening day of the great exhibition. To judge by the [illegible] one would suppose that the exposition is quite as [illegible] and picturesque as last year. The principal feature or alteration is the conversion of a wide space on the north side into a concert room to accommodate 8000 people. A succession of broad steps or rather terraces having been built from the floor to the great organ in the gallery for the use of [illegible] 3 000 [illegible]. The foreign court [illegible] tures of last summer are mainly used [illegible] of Egypt, Spain, Brazil, Norway, Denmark, Japan and China [illegible] exhibited [illegible] industrial [illegible] work and nearly everything in fact shown at the Centennial [illegible] grounds. But [illegible] there is a section [illegible] occupying the southwest [illegible] section [illegible] many of the [illegible] features of Machinery Hall are duplicated including the [illegible]. Opposite this [illegible] agricultural [illegible] with the old windmill. [illegible] display [illegible] than there was [illegible] in which [illegible] surrounded with [illegible] gardens [illegible] the school rooms thoroughly fitted with the books, charts and students' work of [illegible] are to be gathered, while an [illegible] will be present to [illegible]. The north central towers are to be made interesting [illegible] Indian encampment and near the Miss So[illegible] New England kitchen. On the other by a brick building representing a German homestead. Mrs [illegible] natural history court from Colorado is there enlarged and much improved. How large the fine art exhibition in Memorial hall is to be, we cannot say, but worth seeing, it is promised. There is something of a show in the [illegible] in the centre of the Main building, and a bronze goddess of liberty is specially mentioned. Without there is Fairmount itself, beautiful Horticultural Hall, the St. George's house and some other buildings, several other [illegible] fountains, and those who could not visit Philadelphia last summer can now at least sample the pleasure of those who did, without their discomforts

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

APRIL (CIVIL) TERM

HON JOHN APPLETON, C. J. presiding
JAMES H BURGESS, Clerk
RUTH SMITH, Stenographer

Thursday May 3d

Joseph W Harriman vs Eugene F Sanger. Defendant is a physician and surgeon practicing in the city of Bangor.—Plaintiff is a boy about seven years old and brings this action through his father Hiram K Harriman of Brewer, claiming to recover seven thousand dollars as damages for alleged malpractice by the defendant in operating upon and treating the plaintiff for a case of double congenital club feet. The child was thirteen months old when the operation was performed.—The deformity it appears was not cured, but has grown worse with age. Plaintiff claims that defendant performed an unnecessary operation in cutting the heel cord of each of the plaintiff's feet, instead of reducing the deformity by mechanical means, that the shoes applied by defendant were not the most approved shoes in use at that time, that the needed treatment to restore the defective muscles was not afterward applied, and that the defendant wrongfully neglected the case.

Defendant controverts all these positions claiming that the cutting of the heel cord was necessary, that benefit resulted therefrom, that it is a custom among good surgeons to cut the heel cord in such cases, that the shoes used by him were in general use by the medical profession at the time of the operation; that he did skilfully perform said operation and give proper and necessary instructions to the child's parents in regard to the subsequent care of the feet—that the parents neglected the care of the child and failed to keep the defendant posted in regard to the condition of the child, and that no complaint was made to defendant at the time or subsequently until shortly prior to the commencement of this action. Case goes to the jury.

Railway Accident

Yesterday afternoon as the Old Town [illegible] train was on its way to this city, the car next to the engine left the track [illegible] quite a small hump. The train was a long one and consequently moving quite slow. When just above the Water Works one of the flanges on the forward truck of a freight car which was next to the engine, caught and ran up on to the rail and after moving quite a distance in that manner the car jumped the track, altogether tearing the rails up for about fifty feet and before the train stopped two other cars were drawn off from the track. The passenger car was not thrown off and otherwise than being somewhat shaken up, the passengers all escaped uninjured. Most of the gentlemen and some of the lady passengers got on to the engine and rode into the city. A wrecking train with a large number of men were sent up to clear the track and succeeded in repairing the rails so that the evening train from St John was not detained more than one hour. It was a fortunate escape as the place where the accident happened is a bad one and it was a most wonderful thing that the whole train was not thrown into the river. The only damage done was to the two freight cars which were pretty badly broken up. The Maine Central train did not leave until after the train from St John arrived in this city

CITY AFFAIRS

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held yesterday afternoon by call of the Mayor, the resignation of Eagle Hose Co No 3 from the Fire Department was tendered and accepted

Mayor Hamlin offered the following communication to the Board for its consideration viz

BANGOR May 3 1877

To the Board of Aldermen—

Gentlemen—It appears to me that the condition of the City Treasury requires immediate action on the organization of the Fire Department, and I have called you together to-day to consider certain measures of change and relief. According to the estimates based upon the items of last year's expenses including the charges of the Water Board for use of water for this and also last year, the total drain upon the City Treasury will amount to a grand total of nearly thirty thousand dollars! The amount charged last year by the Water Board against the Fire Department not included in the appropriations of last year and not yet paid, is more than eight thousand dollars.

The assessment this year for the same purpose is over $7,000, making in all $15,000. Add to this amount, the appropriation required this year for the working of the Department in all its branches according to the estimates of last year, and the total expense directly and indirectly will reach quite thirty thousand dollars. Our financial condition, therefore, requires a decided change in the expenses of the Fire Organization

I am pleased to state that the members of Eagle Hose Company No 3 on being informed of the actual condition of affairs have generously placed their resignation in my hands, which I now offer to you and suggest that it be accepted. In view of further relief to the city treasury I would respectfully offer the following propositions. To accept the resignation of Company No 3, thereby reducing the number of firemen fifteen men, to reduce the pay of the members of Union Hose Company to $50 per man, members of the Hook and Ladder Company to $40 per member, also the pay of the members of Nos 7 and 8 to $30 per man with the understanding that the two last companies be instructed to the care of their immediate neighborhoods and not to answer to a general alarm, except by special signal given by the fire bell. The perfection of the apparatus now arranged for the protection of the city against fire, warrants the adoption of this or a similar measure, and the condition of the finances of the city absolutely requires it.

A C HAMLIN, Mayor

The following ordinance in accordance with the recommendation of Mayor Hamlin, was presented to the City Council and was passed by the Board to be engrossed, and ordered sent to the Council when in session.

An ordinance amendatory to an ordinance entitled Fire Department fixing the compensation of firemen as follows

The members of the different hose companies now existing and those hereafter be formed shall (with the exception of Union Hose Co) each receive the sum of $30 per annum. The members of Union Hose Co shall each receive the sum of $50 per annum and the members of the Hook and Ladder Co shall each receive the sum of $40 per annum all payable on the first Monday of January in each year

VEGETINE

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

MR. ALBERT CROOKER, the well-known druggist and apothecary, of Springvale, Me., always advises every one troubled with Rheumatism to try VEGETINE.

Read His Statement:

SPRINGVALE, Me., Oct. 12, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir—Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with Rheumatism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago this fall I suffered everything with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a man could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE, and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advise every one that is troubled with Rheumatism to try Vegetine, and not suffer for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned. Yours, etc.,

ALBERT CROOKER,
Firm of A. Crooker & Co.,
Druggists and Apothecaries.

Vegetine

HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.

BOSTON, Oct., 1870.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the Vegetine, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the Vegetine for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the Vegetine to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take, and I can cheerfully recommend it.

JAMES MORSE, 364 Athens street.

Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.

The blood in this disease is found to contain an excess of fibrin. Vegetine acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. Vegetine regulates the bowels, which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. Vegetine is sold by all druggists. Try it, and your verdict will be the same as that of thousands before you, who say, "I never found so much relief as from the use of Vegetine," which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

"Vegetine,"

Says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the Laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE.

NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.

SOUTH SALEM, Mass., Nov. 14, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir—I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint for three years, nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the Vegetine. I am now getting along first-rate, and still using the Vegetine. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody.

Yours truly, MRS. LIZZIE M. PACKARD,
No. 17 Lagrange street, South Salem, Mass.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holiday—The Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 10½ A. M., and from [illegible] Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

Stamped envelopes of above furnished at $21.60 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All Letters must be Pre-paid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, the papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters of postals, prepayment compulsory, [illegible] and sealed, limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

Transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates, and all printed matter of the third class except circulars, shall be admitted to, and be transmitted in, the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fraction thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof, and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles enclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription has been paid, and addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.

On unsealed circulars, merchandise and all other matter of the third class other than that contemplated in the foregoing section, postage will be charged as heretofore, one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents.
Over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents.
Over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents.
Over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of Noyes Ames, late of Hermon, in said county, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration, by about four thousand dollars. Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to grant him a license to sell, at public or private sale, and convey all of the real estate of the deceased (including the reversion of the widow's dower therein,) to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of William Lewis, late of Bangor, in said county, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration.

Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor, inasmuch as by a sale of any portion of the real estate hereinafter described, the residue thereof would be greatly depreciated in value, that he may be licensed to sell for the payment of said debts and charges of administration, at public or private sale, and convey the whole of the following described real estate of said deceased, viz: The brick Block situate in said Bangor, at the corner of Main and Middle Streets, on the northwesterly side of said Main Street and southwesterly side of said Middle Street, known as "Lewis's Block," and also the lot of land on which said Block stands and fronting on said Main Street and extending back on said Middle Street to a passage way, of the real estate of the deceased, including the reversion of the widow's dower therein, to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, Guardian of Walter L. and Arthur L. Ordway, minor heirs of Alice Ordway, late of Exeter, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said minors are seized and possessed of two undivided thirds of the following described real estate, viz: being a part of lot No. eleven in the 10th Range of lots in said town of Exeter, and containing thirty three acres, more or less, and the same premises which for several years last past is occupied by George W. Ordway as his present homestead, subject to a mortgage to the town of Exeter for the support of Mrs. French, the mother of Alice Ordway above mentioned, late deceased,—including the reversion of the widow's dower therein, [illegible] being the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County, Vol. [illegible], Page [illegible], from George W. Ordway to Alice [illegible].

That it would be for the benefit of said minors that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put at interest, or otherwise [illegible] on their behalf.

He therefore prays that license may be granted him to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale, according to the requirements of law.

Notice to Creditors in Bankruptcy.

In the District Court of the United States, for the District of Maine. In the matter of MICHAEL SCHWARTZ, of Bangor, Bankrupt. In Bankruptcy.

District of Maine, ss. A meeting of the creditors of said bankrupt, will be held in the Bankrupt Court Room, before Register Hamlin, in Bangor, in the county of Penobscot, on the 30th day of April, A. D. 1877, at ten o'clock A. M., for the purpose of inquiring whether a resolution accepting a composition proposed by said bankrupt to his creditors, to wit: a composition of fifteen per cent, in satisfaction of the debts owed by said bankrupt to each of his creditors, has been passed in the manner directed by Section 17 of the Bankruptcy Amendment Act, approved June 22, 1874, and the Revised Statutes of the United States, (Title LXI, Bankruptcy) and has been confirmed by the signatures required by said Sections. And also, whether it is for the best interests of all concerned, that the said resolution (accepting the composition proposed) should be recorded, and that the said statement showing the whole of the assets and debts of said Bankrupt, should be filed.

WASHING SOAP.

G. B. ROBINSON, Proprietor.

Music in the Air.

What about? Soap. What kind of Soap? Pearl Soap. Barbers want it for shaving. Ladies and gentlemen want it for the toilet.

Music in the Air Again.

What about? About Soap. What kind of Soap? Peculiar Star Soap. The children of the poor and the children of the rich want it for the sink and want it for the bath. It is nice and they won't be satisfied without it.

MUSIC IN THE AIR ONCE AGAIN.

And it is louder than ever. What about now? Soap. What kind of Soap this time? For pity sake? 1877 Washing Soap. The public have been sighing for it. [illegible] have been crying for it, and the people will heave a sigh of relief, for it has come. feb27
